Great question.

William Hurlbut had already been tasked to deploy by us; then, there was a change of strategy. We notified him to remain on standby until further notice. He had planned on driving to Farmington and not taking a flight.

Chris Lister was tasked by Water Operations to deploy after we processed his 213RR (Resource Request Form). There was a change in strategy here too. Water contacted him to remain on standby.

I understand how this upsets the systems in place. It has the same effect in tracking resources too.

Too late.....several standbys have already submitted TAs. Where are they getting these deployment dates from?

Hi Patty –

He's on standby ONLY. He should not put in a TA yet until he gets called to deploy from Angela Restivo. He's not ready to hop onboard a plane.

I hope this helps.

What about Christopher Lister? A TA just came thru on him today for departure on Monday, 8/17/15.
